THE kind of people who regard the law courts as preeminently "the place to spend a happy day " when any case of a sensational character is in course of hearing seem likely (says the World) to find their favourite recreation still more attractive in the future than it has hitherto been. An advertising private detective calls the attention in the London Press of his prospective seems that the man does a good deal of work for clients to the "animatograph," and asserts that he is prepared to carry out this new process of photography in all cases, " and to produce the pictures in court in evidence." It is needless to harder as the century-draws towards its close.

> THE following Order has been issued by the Madras Government :- "There is a general belie', supported by medical opinion, that rats are peculiarly susceptible to the infection of the bubonic plague and are active agents in its dissemination. Granaries are the favourite baunts of rate, and grain bags arriving from any place suspected to be affected by the plague should be very carefully examined and any rais found with them at once destroyed and their bodies consumed by fire: Infection once brought into a granary- spreads rapidly among the healthy rate and thence in time to human beings living in the neighbourhood. The attention of all Collectors, Presidents of District Boards, and Chairmen of Municipal Councils, and the President, Municipal Commission, Madras, is therefore drawn to the necessity of taking special precautions to prevent the danger of infection from this source. Arrangements should be made for the constant inspection of granaries and grain basaars, and care taken to keep them clean and disinfected and to have the rate destroyed. In inspecting these granaries particular inquiries should be made whether any dead or sick rats have been observed. Rats sick with the plague seem careless in the presence of men and run about in a desed way with a peculiar limping guit in the hind legs owing to painful glands in the groin. bodies of dead rate when found should invariably be burned."

MR. THEODORE BECH, the Principal of the sends the Times the following extracts from a letter which he has received from a well-known native Mohammedan official, referring to the meeting of the Social Democratic Federation on Feb. 10 :- I think it is to any right-thinking native humiliating to know that a man like Dadabhal Naoroji took part in that mad gatherpretty one, the English ships being dressed lng. With what face a native of India could support such resolutions as were passed there and then I cannot understand. It is the case of Caliban and Prospero all over again. If the speeches were not absurd they would be treason. able, but on the first blush their absurdity is brought home to one's sense of humour. I hope the English people do not take us for such fools and ingrates as to have any sympathy with all this wind and bluster. Some native of proper feeling and administrative knowledge ought to write and bring into prominence the fact that never in the annals of this wide world has a public calamity been met in the way the present widespread distress is being combated and its grim forces foliad all long the line with cool 6it. by 1it. It is intended to show the full- unconscious courage and almost faultless power of organization. There is so per cent. improvement on all previous lamine campaigns. THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

A meeting of the Legislative Council was hel this afternoon: His Excellency the Governor Sir William Robinson, K.C.M.G., presided, and there were also present- Hon. J. H. Stewart Lockhart (Colonial Secretary), Hon. W. M. Goodman (Attorney-General), Mr. W. Chatham (Director of Public Works), Hon. R. M. Rumsey, R.N. (Harbour Master), Hon. F. H. May, C.M.G. (Captain Superintendent of Police), Hon. T. S. Smith (Colonial Treasurer) official members; the Hon. C. P. Chater, Hon. T. H. Whitehead, Hon. E. R. Bellios, C.M.G., Hon. Dr. Ho Kal, Hon. Wel A Yak, unofficial members.

The minutes of the last meeting were re and confirmed.

The Registrar General's Report for 1896 and the Report of the Po Leung Kuk Society for 1896 were laid on the table. FINANCIAL MINUTES.

PAPIRS.

The Colonial Secretary laid on the table Financial Minutes Nos. 10, 11, and 13, and on his motion they were referred to the Finance

PUBLIC WORKS COMMITTEE. The Director of Public Works laid on the table the report of the Public Works Committee (No. 1) and it was adopted.

The Colonial Secretary said that since the last meeting of Council the amended Sacitary Bylaws had been referred to the Sanitary Board. The Board had met and amended the by-laws as suggested by the Council and he now moved that they be approved by the Council. In doing so he drew attention to clause 25 especially, he said, as some misunderstanding scemed to have arisan regarding the style of officer to be engaged in the absence of the Medical Officer of Health in times of epidemics. Emphasis had been laid on the word "subordinate" and some seemed to think a subordinate could not undertake such duties. It was not a question of subordinates but whether the officers were suitable men and had been approved of by His Excellency.

The Colonial Treasurer seconded the motion.

The Hon, T. H. Whitehead said the clause in question was a most important one and when sanctioned it would constitute the Board the law of the Colony and would supersede Ordinance 15 of 1894. The Board would be the sole judges as to what property should be pulled down or destroyed. These were very great and unlimited powers and he hoped His Excellency would see that they should not be entrusted to subordinate officers but to trusty and well quaillied men. If subordinate officers were entrusted with these powers the door would be opened to many grave abuses, especially when dealing with dwell upon the prospect of boundless entertain. I the Chinese. At the last meeting the Captain ment for the court loafer that is opened up by Superintendent of Police had said that the this interesting announcement, which, on the Board commanded the respect of the community. other hand, is calculated to strike torror into the It was not necessary for him to make any noon twelve lots of valuable house properly in | minds of all possible victims of detective vigil- | remark on that statement, but on the evidence Second and Third Streets and Un Fuk and Un ance. In Ordinance 15 of 1894 it was required that the Board should prove its case and obtain an order from a magistrate before they could begin to remove or destroy property. When section 25 was sanctioned, it would deprive the inhabitants of all opportunity of being heard by an impartial court before their property was removed or destroyed. Such unlimited discretionary powers should only be entrusted to men of experience and well qualified and he knew that so long as His Excellency remained here the ratepayers would have no cause for complaint. It was imperatively necessary to see that the officers entrusted with these arbitrary powers were men thoroughly were qualified.

His Excellency said he could only repeat the assurance given before, that as long as he was here only well qualified officers would be employed, men who would enjoy the respect of Ruropeans and Chinese alike (Hear, hear). The by-laws were then approved by the

A POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. Whitehead said that, the by-laws having been approved, he wished to rise to a point of order. At a meeting held two weeks ago attention was called to the fact that certain by-laws had only been two clear days in the possession of the Unofficial Members for their consideration. He was informed by the Colonial Secretary that if he had though fit, he could have got a copy from the Sanitary Board. The Unofficial Merabers should not be required to me to the Sanitury Board to obtain papers and he hoped the Governor would give instruction to the Clerkof Council to see that the Unofficial members were furnished with these important papers in ample time for their consideration. He thought that the dignity of the Council would be consulted if a little more consideration was shown by the Colonial Secretary to the Unofficial members. Last session he (Mr. Whitehead) had been charged by the Colonial Secretary with having attempted to "burke" the Military Contribution Bill and he quoted the Secretary of State's despatch in which regret was expressed that Unofficial Members had not had an opportunity of considering that bill. The Colonial Secretary thought the sequest for papers was a very fair and reasonable one. As to Mr. Whitehead's other remarks he hoped that his colleggues did not hold the same opinion. If ever he had shown want of consideration it was absolutely without intention.

ADJOURNMENT. The Council adjourned till Monday lexis with HUDSON'S SURPRISE PARTY.

After a "record" season in Shanghal the above popular entertainers opened before a crowded audionce at the Theatre Royal on Salurday night, As usual the programme was a most enjoyable one the rounds of applause that greated the performers testified to their popularity in very emphatic manner. Miss. Lily Linton again acted as interlocutor and Messrs Hudson, McKisson, Kearns and Harley were first rate " end man;" a good swinging overture, "Army and Navy," by the company opened the ball and then Mr. A. Royd gave a pleasing rendition of "Anchored." Miss Amy Thornton In her serio-comic medley and dance scored yet another success and a hearty recall. The ballad "Love's Sweet Song " was beautifully song by Miss Stanbeldge, and then Thomas P. tickled the audience with a ditty regarding "Pride of Kowloon," and for which he was encored McKisson and Kearns contributed one of their nest and clever song and dance acts and they were warmly applauded. Miss Elliott, as the encore number for the song "The Fog Bell," gave "Home, Dearle, Home," and the talented young vocalist had a most enthusiastic reception. Miss Ida Rosslyn was as strong a favourite as ever in her smart serio-comic sketches and the request for "Romeo" was one that could not be dealed. Mr. Wallaco King had a recall for his song "Plymouth Sound," and by request he sang the ever-popular "Sally Horner," in great style. Alaughable farce "The Bridal Ceremony," closed the first part with much merriment. Mr. H. Burton opened Part 2 with a cretty plane interlude and then Altro, the juggler, came along and did some very wonderful feats of balancing. The thapsodising and parodising of Mr. Hudson and Miss Lirnton was a decidedly good performance, and the laughter and applause that the artists evoked was irresistible, the recall being inevitable. Miss Habgood, it goes without saying, did full justice to her grand planeforte paraphrase on Scottish airs and her skilled instrumentation was highly appreciated. The Gourlays (Amy and William) two of the cleverest performers ever seen here, next convulsed the audience with their very funny sketches "The Gress Widow" and "The Invalid." William sings and acts like few others can and Amy is one of the best serio-comic singers and danc is that has visited these parts. The audience parted with them very reluctantly indeed. An Irish song and dance of the "Two Macs" style, by McKisson and Kearns, was applauded to the echo and was intensely amusing. Miss Elliott repeated her former successes in the pretty song "The Valley by the Sea" and she had a well won tribute of praise. Honghong audiences apparently cannot get too much of Miss Ida Rosslyn and the enthusiastic manner in which this lady's serio-comic aketches were received and the clamourous applause that followed show that she stands very high in public cerimation. "A little thing" of T.P.'s own entitled "The midnight Intruder," played by Miss Linton, Messrs, Hudson, McKisson, Kearns, Harley King and Royd brought the performance to a class. A new programme is to be presented this evening and the intertalnment has this in common with our big Dictionary, that It has only to be seen to be appreciated.

THE CHINA TEA TRADE.

MACHINE-MADE TEAS IN NORTH CHINA.

Mr. Ioseph Welch, under date Shanghal, 8th May, writes to the North China Daily News concerning the first machine made tes in North China :- "The Poocht to-day brought musters of new season's Black Teas from Weichow, and amongst them were the first teas made by machine-rolling in the north of China. To have made a tea which is superior to that found in nine out of ten drawing-rooms in Shanghai out of the despised Weachow leaf would in itself have been a triumph, even if the maker had been an expert from Ceylon; but to find that an ordinary native tea-man, with the help of a Jackson's tea-roller and after an hour's explanation of its uses, a teaboy interpreting, is able to convert tea leaf from an article which both American and English importers detest, and warn buyers against, into an article fragrant, palatable, and of double the ordinary strength, reveals to one the possibilities which lie hidden in China leaf, and the bright promise in store for China tea if it is properly treated.

"This successful experiment goes even faither, It shows that, with a little improvement in the means of storing the leaf during preparation, the only vitally necessary machinery required is a good roller, and that money spent in siroccos, etc. would be money thrown away.

"The cost of rollers, which can be worked either by hand or by water power, is within the means of any tea-man, so we should no longer hear that the cost of machinery will be prohibitory to the introduction of the new process.

"The machine used in the present case is one which I imported for the Hankow Tea Guild cleven years ago, but which lay in a godown susting and unused until I bought it back from them a few months ago. Some improvements in rollers have doubtless been made of late years, but this one is so simple that it was taken to pleces in Shanghal by a fitter, and it was put together again In the country near Wenchow by local men without the assistance of a fitter or an engineer to put it in working order,

"The folly of the Indian Government's financial policy in raising artificially the value of the super, and thus imposing a crushing tax on the Industries of India and Ceylon, is China's opportunity for regaining her decadent tea trade, and once regained by using improved methods of curing it will stand by its own merits. A Ningchow, Oania, or Keemen tea cured by the new process would be a thing of beauty."

TEA PROSPECTS AT HANKOW. "A. K. C." sends the following statement to the Daily News from Hankow :-The export of Congou from Hankow and Shanghal to England and America last season amounted to 18,500,000 lbs. with the result that fine tess are unsalcable at ever 6d, per ib. This sesson the first crop alone is estimated at 000,000 half-chests or 55,000,000 ibs. Russia is overweighted with a heavy stock and is not expected to take more than half the above quantity, leaving 27,500,000 lbs. to be shipped to England and America, or, say, 10,000,000 lbs. more than last season even if no later crops come forward. With ten practically unraleable with a moderate. export, it is easy to predict the condition of the markets under present conditions. It is doubtful whether England and America can take the increased supplies at any price. Happily buyers seem to be fully alive to the gravity of the elfuntion ; indeed it is rapidly producing confidenotion among the natives.

RUCTIONS AMONG THE TROOPS AT WOOSUNG.

SHANGHAI, May 10th.

There seems to have been a great deal of childish and absord fore made over the trivial disturbance which occurred on Saturday last at the forts at So-txe-lin some eight miles from Woosung. To call it a mutiny is absurd as the disbanded braves did not attempt to use even the poor weapons with which they were armed Why it should have been thought necessary to march nearly 2,500 well-armed and foreign-dell led troops under all their German officers, with two batteries of satillery, eight miles to quell disturbance of 1,000 undrilled and wretchedly armed coolle braves is beyond comprehension. To show how badly samed were these latter, Baron von Reltzenstein, who was in command, is reported by a contemporary to have said that the braves had builets for their muzz'e-loaders, but no powder. It seems to us that undue severity was used in decapitating four of the ring-leaders for what was at the outside merely the usual Chinese squabble ever payment of wages, and we entirely fall to see how the consequences might have been so disastrous to Shanghal as is implied in our contemporary's report. There seems to be a tendency to make too much capital out of every paltry little disturbance that takes place among the Chinese. The new foreign-drilled troops are admittedly a great improvement on the old type of Chinese warrior, but why they should be laudedto the skies for their behaviour on Saturday we cannot understand. It was a cheep advertise-

The simple facts are as follows:--At 7 o'clock on Saturday morning Baron von Reltxentela received news from General Wang commanding the three camps at Se-txe-lin that 1,000 of the troops he had been ordered to disband had mutinied. The gallant Baron immediately ordered out all the foreign-drilled troops at Woosung consisting of two battailons of infantry, a squadron of horse and two batteries o artillery. These, on further news being received from General Wang asking for assistance, were marched on Se-tze-lin, which is eight miles from Woosung. One company was left to defend the powder magazine at Woosung. On the troops arriving at Se-tre-lin a cordon of troops was immediately drawn round the camps and the rioters who had greeted the arrival of the troops with shouts of "Yang Kwelse" (foreign devils) were ordered to give up their army. This they at first refused to do, but on the guns being tesined on them they bastened to comply. One of the ringleaders was decapitated instanter. The rinters were compelled to assist in pulling the six guns back to Woosung. A slight recurrence of the trouble took on Sunday morning, but was speedily suppressed and three more of the leaders decapitated. There is not likely to be any more disturbance, as the disbanded soldlers, mostly Hunanese, were busily employed yesterday in carrying their goods and chattels on board one of the men-of war to be carried up the Yangise to their homes.—China Gasette.

THE WHEELBARROW BUNGLE.

SHANGHAI, May 11th.

We are informed that at about 5 p'clock on Saturday afternoon there was held a meeting of local mendarins and gentry at the Taotal's new Foreign Bureau to discuss the question of the enhanced wheelbarrow tax, which it appears that pine-tenths of the coolies had declared it to be their intention to resist in July. There were present at the meeting the Shanghai and Mixed Court Magistrates, Messrs, Huang and T'o, the President of the native Mrs. S. Stockhausen..... Bankers' guild. Mr. Ch'en, and Yden Taotal, a wealthy Ningo man having large business interests in this port. It seems that anticipating trouble in July no decent Chinese will consent to form a guild for the turbulent weeelbarrow-men, in consequence of which the guild in question is still in abeyance. Nothing definite was arrived at by the above meeting, except an intended appeal to the Municipal Councils to reconsider their intention to increase the tax.-N. C. Daily News.

SUPREME COURT.

SUMMARY JERISDICTION.

(Before His Lordship Mr. A. G. Wise, Pulsus

Judge.)

TLETCHER & CO. v. HANS.

This was a claim by Fistcher & Co. for $100 for an artificial leg supplied by them for a Mrs. Derrell (now dead), who was employed as barmaid by the defendant Mrs. Hans, landledy of the Grand Hotel. Mr. J. Hastings appeared for the plaintiffs and Mr. Reece for defendant. Plea not indebted. Mr. McIver, manager for Fletcher & Co. gave evidence regarding the ordering of an artificial leg for Mrs. Derrell, After $100 had been paid of the $200 he substituted the name of Mrs. Derrell for that of Mrs. Hans, the original debtor. It was Mrs. Hans who asked him for an estimate for the leg. Defendant also had paid him $10.

that he had given credit to Mrs. Hans, but not to Mrs. Derrell. The bill produced in Mrs. original bill was made.

Mr. C. Kew, at one time an assistant at the Pharmacy, said he had seen defendant order the leg, and at another time he saw her pay $80,

Mrs. Hans, the defendant, denied that she had ordered the leg or asked for an estimate or paid any money for it. She saw Mr. McIver about allowing a subscription list to be placed on her counter to belp Mrs. Derrell, Mrs. Derrell died on New Year's Day. She was examined at length by Countel and all through disclaimed any liability in the matter.

James P. Reis, bar man at the Grand Hotel, stated that he had accompanied Mrs. Derrell to Fletcher & Co's and he heard Mr. McIver say that if subscription lists were allowed on the bar counter he would order the leg. On two occaslove Mrs. Derrell had given witness $10 to pay to Fletcher & Co. Mrs. Hans had never saked bim to have the receipt changed to her name. He never knew Mrs. Hans to go to Fletcher's about a leg.

Mary Baine, a bar maid, said she saw the leg delivered to Mrs. Derrell. She knew that Mrs. Derrell had paid these sums to Fletcher & Co. She had never seen a bill made out in the name of Mrs. Hans.
